More Than a Touch!

We love to find people who work like us. People who are dedicated to looking after details and making people happy. Six years ago, we were a one-company effort pushing this largely ignored message at unresponsive inbounders and uncomprehending lodges. Nowadays, thankfully, many more people are understanding the true sophistication of clients and the level at which their time in New Zealand can be tailored.

Just last week in Queenstown we decided to try out "Touch of Spice", Jacqui Spice's property and concierge services company. What a refreshing experience! Nothing is any trouble. Staff are always accessible 24 hours a day. Properties are up to true international luxury standard. Restaurants are immediately booked. Private chefs are a phone call away. What a relief. We strongly recommend Jacqui.
